Granbury Wine Celebration Holiday Edition Returns November 14–15, 2025
Expanded Wineries, Artisan Vendors, and Live Music in the Heart of the Historic Granbury Square

GRANBURY, TEXAS (Fall 2025) – The Granbury Wine Celebration: Holiday Edition returns to the Historic Granbury Square on Friday, November 14, and Saturday, November 15, 2025, bringing with it the best of Texas wine, music, and holiday-centric artisan culture.

This year's festival promises a bigger, brighter experience with:

- Expanded Wine Tastings – Guests can enjoy 15 (1-ounce) tastings from more than 20 Texas wineries, showcasing the state's rich and diverse viticulture.
- Artisan & Boutique Market – Holiday shopping meets Texas craftsmanship with a curated lineup of vendors offering wine accessories, handcrafted goods, and boutique finds.
- Historic Holiday Setting – The beloved Granbury Square transforms into a festive backdrop, blending the charm of local history with the spirit of the season.
- Bigger Music Stage & Entertainment – Live music fills the Square both nights, culminating with a headline performance on Saturday evening.

"The Granbury Wine Celebration has always been about more than wine—it's about community," says Melissa McGavock, President of Granbury Wine Celebration. "This year's Holiday Edition gives guests an opportunity to taste, shop, and celebrate the season in one of Texas's most charming destinations."

The festival begins Friday, November 14 from 5–8 p.m., with live music, food, and tastings. The celebration continues on Saturday, November 15 from 12–8 p.m., ending with a headline music act on the expanded stage.

Tickets include a commemorative wine glass and 15 tastings. Proceeds from the event support local and state-wide non-profits, continuing the festival's tradition of giving back to the community.
