Granbury Wine Celebration Holiday Edition to Feature Neon Prophets and Founding Members of the Toadies as 2025 Headliners

Granbury, TX — [09/10/25] — The Granbury Wine Celebration: Holiday Edition, returning to the historic Granbury Square on November 14–15, 2025, has announced two unforgettable headliners to light up the weekend: Neon Prophets and the founding members of the Toadies.

On Friday, November 14, the party kicks off at 6pm with Neon Prophets, Fort Worth's high-energy 90s country band. They'll set the stage for a night of scootin', singin', and celebrating the best of Texas music and wine.

On Saturday, November 15, 6pm, the spotlight shifts to the founding members of the Toadies, who defined a generation with their gritty, iconic alternative rock sound. Fans can expect a set filled with the songs that shaped the 90s and continue to resonate decades later.

"This lineup is something special—we've got the best of both worlds," says the Granbury Wine Celebration. "It's the perfect blend for a weekend that brings generations together."

The Granbury Wine Celebration has become more than a wine festival—it's a tradition that blends award-winning Texas wineries, artisan vendors, and live music with a mission of giving back. Between the November 2024 and April 2025 Celebrations, $7,000 was contributed to the United Way of Hood County. Organizers will soon announce the beneficiary of this year's Holiday Edition, continuing the commitment to community impact.

About Granbury Wine Celebration

The Granbury Wine Celebration brings together Texas wineries, artisan vendors, and live entertainment for two annual festivals held on the historic Granbury Square—one each spring and one each holiday season. More than just a wine-tasting event, the Celebration is dedicated to strengthening community ties and supporting Texas winemakers, artisans, and local charitable organizations.
