Texas Wine, Holiday Shopping, and Small-Town Christmas Charm Return to Historic Granbury Square

GRANBURY, Texas — The Granbury Wine Celebration is delighted to announce the third annual Holiday Edition, taking place Friday, November 20, from 2:00–8:00 PM, and Saturday, November 21, from 12:00–8:00 PM, on the Historic Granbury Square.

Celebrating the best of Texas wine and the spirit of the holiday season, the two-day festival will welcome more than 20 Texas wineries, artisan makers, specialty food vendors, live music, and festive experiences in one of Texas' most beloved historic downtowns.

Guests who purchase tasting tickets will receive a 2026 commemorative wine glass and 15 one-ounce tasting tickets to enjoy at participating wineries. Wineries will also offer wines by the glass and bottle, making it easy for tasting ticket holders to discover new favorites and take home the best of Texas wine.

In addition to wine tasting, visitors can browse a curated marketplace featuring artists, fine crafts, gourmet foods, home décor, wine accessories, vintage treasures, leather goods, and unique holiday gifts. The festival will also feature live entertainment, seasonal décor, interactive vendor experiences, and the unmistakable charm of Granbury dressed for Christmas.

"The Holiday Edition is about celebrating everything that makes Texas special, our incredible wineries, talented artisans, historic downtown and businesses, and the magic of the holiday season," said Melissa McGavock, Founder and Event Host of the Granbury Wine Celebration.

The Granbury Wine Celebration continues its mission of supporting Texas wineries while driving tourism and economic impact for Historic Granbury. Each year, the event brings thousands of
